Saskatoon citizens are feeling the chill

The Saskatoon Community Clinic says that Saskatoon citizens are feeling the chill when it comes to affordable housing. A news conference will be held in the back alley behind the Westside Clinic to draw attention to the need for affordable, adequate housing now.

Tuesday, December 14, 2010, 10:00 a.m.
Back Alley behind Westside Clinic
1528 20th Street West

Speakers:

- Dr. Stephen Helliard, Community Clinic Physician
- Dr. Ryan Walker, Assistant Professor, Department of Geography and Planning, University of Saskatchewan
- Nancy Carmichael, Community Clinic Board Member

- 30 -

The Saskatoon Community Clinic, a membership based co-operative, provides primary health care services to people living in Saskatoon and area at its Downtown Clinic, 455 2nd Avenue North and Westside Clinic, 1528 20th Street West. The Westside Clinic serves Saskatoon's inner city population valuing diversity and respecting the unique needs of its largely Aboriginal patient group.
