Did You Know?

We are one of the first health care co-operatives in Saskatchewan. We offer care for the whole person. We encourage and assist individuals to play a role in their own health care by participating in health promotion programs and serving on our Board of Directors.

We speak out and act on issues that affect health, including:

- the effects of poverty on health
- support for publicly funded health care
- advocacy for the community clinic model of primary health care
- environmental issues
- support for programs to improve the lives of people who are most at risk, including children, youth, Aboriginals, disabled persons and seniors.

We Support These Groups:

- Aboriginal Seniors
- Seniors' Groups and Advisory Council
- Parents, Families, and Friends of Lesbians and Gays
